Notes on Design

Dear Friends,

Warmest holiday wishes to each of you! As we reflect on the year winding down, let us be thankful for the blessings in our lives and hopeful for those things yet to come.

I am ever so thankful for a great 2007. My "new" ventures in Minneapolis have been filled with a growing company, new friends and much travel. The first full year in the Twin Cities will be one of my best ever. Thank you for your support and business. I appreciate the referrals you send me- and I have good gifts for those who pass my name along!

Looking forward to 2008, I plan to highlight some of my clients and projects in these Notes on Design pages. Of course, I will continue to include helpful design advice, current trends and happenings around town. Please let me know what else you would like to see.

Regards,
Sharon Allemong
