Notes On Design

Dear Friends,

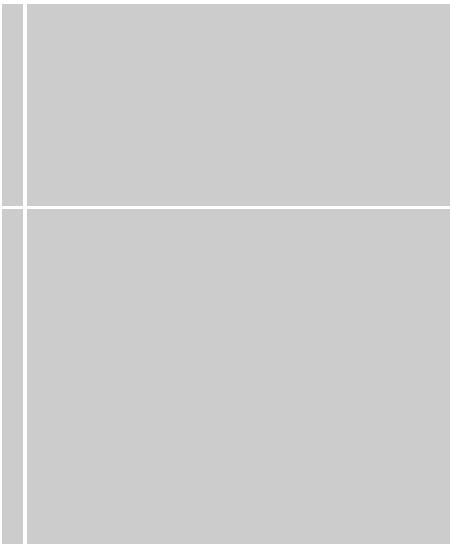

What a great start to 2010- I have EXCITING NEWS!

I am opening a new showroom at Int'l Market Square in Minneapolis called The Sale Room @ IMS. It will be a consolidation of all the other showrooms' sale merchandise, available to the public to purchase at 50 to 80% off retail. We will be open on Thursdays & Fridays 9 to 5 and Saturdays 10 to 1, starting Thursday March 4th.

Our selection will change each week, featuring everything from contemporary to traditional home furnishings. In addition to the furniture, we will have rugs, lighting, accessories and outdoor items.

This is a new concept for the design center and will provide several benefits. The showrooms will have an effective way to liquidate merchandise, and consumers will have the opportunity to purchase high quality designer furnishings at a fraction of the retail price. Soon, we will have our website uploaded with most if not all of our merchandise so you can shop from home. We will also keep a client "wish list" so that we can be on the lookout for specific items.

We look forward to this new venture and hope that you will stop in to check it out!

Warmest regards,
Sharon
